PARTICIPANTS ON THIS TRIP MUST MAKE THEIR OWN FLIGHT ARRANGEMENTS*

"Nothing can be loved or hated until it is first understood"
-Leonardo DaVinci

Our Civil Rights Journey is your opportunity to become empowered and be inspired to return home and get involved. You will discover that you have the power to make a difference. You will meet with members of the clergy who worked and strategized with Dr. King as well as with people who marched from Selma to Montgomery. These are primary sources. By visiting the Equal Justice Initiative Legacy Museum and Memorial to Peace and Justice as well as the Names Project/AIDS Quilt, you will achieve a better understanding of the Civil Rights Movement. This is an issue that not only impacted specific people in the 1950s and 60s but is an ongoing issue today and is still being fought by a variety of groups that feel they have no voice in the world.

*PLEASE NOTE THAT INDIVIDUAL TRAVELERS ARE RESPONSIBLE FOR MAKING THEIR OWN FLIGHT ARRANGEMENTS TO AND FROM THE HARTSFIELD-JACKSON ATLANTA INTERNATIONAL AIRPORT.
This will enable you to use miles, utilize a variety of airlines and do pre and post trip visits to Atlanta, if desired. Our bus will take participants from our last stop in Birmingham to the ATLANTA AIRPORT for their return flights. Please plan to arrive in Atlanta by Saturday, November 9th with time to check-in to Marriott Atlanta Gateway and meet in the LOBBY OF HOTEL at 6:00PM to meet the group when trip starts. There is a complimentary SKY TRAIN at the Atlanta Airport. Its first stop is the Marriott Atlanta Gateway Hotel.

DEPARTURE FLIGHT RESERVATIONS FROM ATLANTA SHOULD BE MADE AFTER 6:00PM on Tuesday, November 12. This will allow for traffic we may encounter from Birmingham and the hour time difference.

WE WILL BE TRAVELING BY MOTORCOACH FROM CITY TO CITY
ITINERARY
(SUBJECT TO CHANGE)

DAY 1 - SATURDAY, NOVEMBER 9
Arrive in Atlanta with sufficient time to check into the Marriott Airport Gateway Hotel to meet the group in the lobby of hotel at 6:00PM. We enjoy a WELCOME DINNER.
(D)

DAY 2 - SUNDAY, NOVEMBER 10
After Breakfast, our day in Atlanta starts by attending church services at the historic Ebenezer Baptist Church where the Rev. Dr. Martin Luther King Jr. preached and where his father and grandfather served as Preachers. After services, we have a walking tour of the Auburn Street neighborhood where Dr. King was born and where he is buried. Auburn Street was a neighborhood of power for the Atlanta’s African American community. We have Lunch at the Ponce City Food Hall. After Lunch we continue to the Names Project AIDS Memorial Quilt. The quilt is a powerful memorial celebrating the lives of people who have died of AIDS-related causes. We meet with the Director and discuss why we are at the AIDS Quilt on a Civil Rights journey and learn about the history of the HIV/AIDS crisis and the AIDS Quilt. Our last stop in Atlanta is the National Center for Civil and Human Rights where we explore the history of the Civil Rights movement to better understand current human rights issues. We leave the Center and depart for Montgomery, Alabama where we have Dinner and check into The Renaissance Hotel.

DAY 3 - MONDAY, NOVEMBER 11
Following Breakfast, we check out of the hotel and go to the Rosa Parks Museum where we learn about Rosa Parks’ historic act of sitting down on a bus and not getting up. Our next stop is the powerful new museum and memorial created by the Equal Justice Initiative. This visit to the Legacy Museum will leave us with the understanding how slavery never ended but only evolved from slavery to Jim Crow to the modern prison system as a way to keep a segment of our population down. At the Memorial to Peace and Justice we bear witness to the history of racial lynching. We Lunch at a Southern Buffet then continue to Selma and meet an activist and participant in the Selma to Montgomery March. We then follow the marcher’s footsteps by walking across the Edmund Pettus Bridge. After Dinner at a local restaurant we travel to Birmingham to check into the Wynfrey Hotel.

DAY 4 - TUESDAY, NOVEMBER 12
After Breakfast we check out of our hotel and go to the Kelly Ingram Park to hear the history of the tragic bombing of the 16th Street Baptist Church on September 15, 1963. We meet with a Bishop who worked with Dr. King and Rev. Fred Shuttlesworth to learn about “everything Civil Rights in Birmingham.” We then visit the Birmingham Civil Rights Institute, an interpretive museum and research center that depicts the struggles of the Civil Rights Movement in the 1950s and 1960s. After our meeting we will have a Box Lunch en route to the Hartsfield-Jackson Atlanta International Airport.
Given traffic and hour time difference, your flights reservations home must be made after 6:00PM.

Participation in Newark Museum tours is a benefit of membership of The Newark Museum. The goal of these tours is to present educational travel programs that reflect the interests and concerns of The Newark Museum and its members. These trips provide a combination of study, discovery and adventure. ALL PARTICIPANTS MUST BE CURRENT MEMBERS OF THE NEWARK MUSEUM.

The Newark Museum reserves the right to decline to accept any person as member of the tour or to require any participant to withdraw from the tour at any time without any refund when such person is incapable of meeting the rigors and requirements of the trip activities or is abusive to other trip participants or tour leaders. These actions will be taken when determined to be in the best interest of the health, safety and general welfare of the group or of the individual participant. The Newark Museum reserves the right to make changes in the published itinerary whenever, in their sole judgment, conditions warrant, or if they deem it necessary for the comfort, convenience, and safety of the tour. Every effort will be made to carry out the programs as planned, but on occasion alterations may still occur after the final itineraries are sent.

RESPONSIBILITY: The Newark Museum/Etgar36 act only as agents for the passenger with respect to transportation and hotels, and exercise every care possible. However, we can assume no liability for injury, damage, loss, accident, delay, or irregularity in connection with the services of any airplane, train, auto motor coach or other conveyance used in carrying out these tours, or for acts of default of any company or person engaged in conveying the passengers or in carrying out the arrangements of the tour. We cannot accept responsibility for losses of additional expenses due to delay or changes in air or other causes beyond our control. All such losses or expenses will be borne by the passenger as tour rates provide for arrangements only for the time stated. We reserve the right to make alterations to the itinerary as may be deemed necessary for carrying out the tour. The right is reserved to cancel any tour prior to departure in which case the entire payment will be refunded without further obligation on our parts. The right is reserved to decline, accept, or retain any person as a member of the tour. Baggage is at the owners risk entirely. The Newark Museum/Etgar 36 reserves the right to increase the tour price in the event of cost increases due to fuel surcharges and such increases are to be paid to Newark Museum upon notice to the tour participant of such increases
