

The Newark Museum of Art Internship Programs Application Guidelines

To apply for an internship at The Newark Museum of Art, please submit the following information in an application packet to the address below:

- Name, Address, Contact information
- Level of Education most recently completed
- Internship programs
 - Summer Internship
 - Academic Year Internship (Fall or Winter)*
- Complete course list and/or official university transcript. (A transcript is not required for internships during the academic year.)
- Resume/curriculum vitae
- Two letters of reference (at least one should be academic)
Letters should be in sealed envelopes signed by the reference on the outer flap. These may be sent under separate cover.
- Statement of interest that addresses the following three questions:

What unique qualifications do you have to intern at The Newark Museum of Art?

What has been one of your greatest achievements and why?

What most interests you about joining The Newark Museum of Art community?

We do our best to place interns in departments that match their area of interest and career goals, if possible. If you have a preference for a particular department, please indicate this in your statement of interest.

*Students interested in an internship during the academic year should send a request to internprogram@newarkmuseumart.org prior to submitting their material.
