Celebrating Bold and Innovative Spirits
(Value: $1,500)

Explore the Newark Museum’s re-interpreted Modern and Contemporary galleries celebrating a forward-thinking community of global American artists. Hosted by Curator of American Art Tricia Laughlin Bloom, PhD, get an in-depth look at how courageous collecting and provocative presentation are sparking new conversations. Enjoy a private tasting prepared by mixologists from Tito's Handmade Vodka in the Museum's Welcome Center, and take home a collection of handmade spirits and cocktail mixes.

Redeemable through 2021, date restrictions apply.

A Himalayan Journey: Meditation, Music and Movement
(Value: $1,500)

The Newark Museum connects you to the nation's best Himalayan art collections in one day. Start at the Museum with a private meditative experience in the Tibetan Buddhist Altar consecrated by His Holiness the 14th Dalai Lama, installed in the Pat and Art Ryan Asian Art Galleries, hosted by Director and CEO Linda Harrison. Transportation provided from Newark to The Rubin Museum of Art, where Executive Director Jorrit Britschgi will host you and a guest for an ultimate behind the scenes experience of Tibetan Buddhist culture and Himalayan art with a private Mindfulness tour. Boxed refreshments provided by the Museum's Sketch Café, opening this Winter.

Redeemable now through 2021, date restrictions apply.

Victorian Tea for Any Occasion
(Value: $1,500)

Take afternoon tea in Victorian style in 2021 at the 1885 Ballantine House, a National Historic Landmark and the crown jewel of Newark Museum's campus. Take a private tour with Associate Curator of Decorative Arts Amy Simon Hopwood to view richly decorated period rooms and exhibitions of signature pieces of silver, jewelry and ceramics from around the world. Private Tour and seating for four, catered by Sterling Affair and Sketch Café, the Museum's in-museum eatery opening January 2021.

Redeemable beginning January 2021, date restrictions apply.
